

FAMILY WORKSHOPS!

Adventures @ Toy Town!

A special series of workshops designed for the parent/ grandparent & child to enjoy worlds of creation and toys!

Flying High:

A Lesson on Wind & Kite Building
Saturday, May 31 • 10 am-12 noon

It's time to go fly a kite! Join your child and learn about the history of kites, how they are made and what keeps them flying - the wind. This workshop will include demonstrations with kites and the making of your very own kite to take home!

Instructors are Alixandra Martin & Jennifer Seth-Cimini
Suggested ages: 4-7 years old with parent • Fee $25

Going Green:

A Lesson on the Environment & Art with Recyclables
Saturday June 14 • 10 am-12 noon

Going Green is a lesson on taking care of the environment and creating art with recycled materials. Artwork made for recyclables will be highlighted and participants will make their own artistic toy using recyclable materials to take home.

Instructors are Heather Harris & Jennifer Seth-Cimini
Suggested ages: 4-7 years old with parent • Fee $25

Being Helpful:

A Lesson on Community Helpers & Puppet Making
Saturday August 16 • 10 am-12 noon

Learn about all the people who make our community work so well, from the mail carriers to the police officers. Meet a real community helper, and create your very own puppet to take home.

Instructors are Alixandra Martin & Heather Harris
Suggested ages: 2-4 years old with parent • Fee $25

Every Saturday

Toy Town Toddler Arts
September 13-October 11 • 10 am-11 am

You're never too young to learn about art! Bring your budding artist to explore the world of art as they splatter paint, use charcoal and chalk as they learn about the Masters of Art.

Instructor: Tess Lojacono
Suggested ages: 18 months-3 years old with parent
• Fee: $65 (members) $75 (non members)
